Press Release re Examination Results at Darland High School.

Year 11 pupils at Darland High School were today celebrating the best ever results achieved at the school. A record 66% of the year group achieved the 'gold standard' of five good GCSE passes including English and Mathematics. On every major indicator, school records were broken.

A delighted Peter Agnew, headteacher at the school, commented:
'These results are testament to the enormous amount of work that has taken place over the last year in improving standards of teaching and learning. My thanks go not only to our very hard working pupils in Year 11, but to the staff, who have pulled out all the stops to unlock the potential of our wonderful young people.'

Among the high number of pupils who did exceptionally well were:

Dhruv Bansal, of Wrexham, achieving 6 A* and 5 As.

Jodie Jeffs, of Marford, achieving 8 A* and 2 As

Jack McClean, of Rossett, achieving 4 A* and 4 As

Alex Quinn, of Rossett, achieving 4 A* and 6 As

Rebecca Sharpe, of Gresford, achieving 4 A* and 5 As

Christian Smith, of Rossett, achieving 4 A* and 5 As
